

Hilary Bucumi

Born in Burundi, a small country in Central Africa. Secondary School Teacher in Burundi, until I fled to Tanzania where I lived for nearly 12 years in a refugee camp.

Came to Australia in 2005. Leader of the Australian Burundian Community in Victoria Inc. and active member of the Burundian Drumming Group. Was involved in the project of short films making under the mentoring of MAV.

Currently working on a project of mentoring the Burundian community in Shepparton in drum making and setting up a drumming group in that town.

Photo:

