

GADDA BAND

Gadda Band consists of three very amazing and talented singers Kumala Aduyna, Ararsa Gabbisa and Mulu Baqqalaa accompanied by keyboardist Tamrat Kebede. The quartet have a vast amount of experience in performing traditional and modern Oromo songs. The power and energy they deliver is amazing during any set it is guaranteed to set the stage on fire. Accompanied by local musicians and dancers they deliver an amazing show and please the crowd on every occasion.

Kumala Aduyna has been performing for several years at various Oromo community events, weddings, multicultural events and recently released an album celebrating his achievements. Ararsa Gabbisa is a very well renowned performer in Oromia as he has been performing with many famous local artists and international artists such as Dr Ali Birra, the god father of Oromo music. Mulu Baqqalaa is a female singer songwriter who is famous in her art throughout Oromia, Mulu has a very soothing, melodic and dynamic voice which delivers a powerful message and entertainment. Tamrat Kebede has been the backbone to many aspiring and developed artists by producing and mastering over 300 songs to date.

Collaboratively this quartet promises to set the Oromo music scene in Melbourne and globally alight with their combined massive stage experience. Gadda Band will surely entertain and take you on a journey of Oromia.