

SAEED ABDELLA & THE EAST AFRICAN ENSEMBLE

The group's lead singer, Saeed Abdullah Mohamed, started playing music when he was 14 years old and has played music for 35 years. He has been heavily inspired by his brother, the famous singer, Abdu Abdella. Saeed was a former soldier and started singing in the EPLF Band. As a composer, singer and songwriter, he has toured with his band through the Middle East, Europe, USA, Canada and Africa. He has since released 3 albums and more than 100 singles. Now Saeed with the famous Kirar player and singer, Anbessa Gebrehiwot and Masinko Player and singer Haftu Reda, create the East African Ensemble.
